Subject: CSTAG Meeting

Bill and Dawn,

Following up, I spoke with the Program and learned that the Region recently asked the CSTAG chair about attendance at the CSTAG meeting, based on another request. We were reminded that the CSTAG procedures hold that the Region will invite just key stakeholders with significant site involvement to attend and present; and that is a limited group (lead state agency, lead PRP, lead trustee, tribes, and community groups). That being the case, there is no opportunity for SMWG to attend or present at the meeting. If they would like to offer their perspective, a written communication is the way to do that. It will then be up to CSTAG to determine how to address the submission.

Let me know if you have any more questions about this.

-Sarah
